'Shoot' Orders Issued

US Pursuit Planes With Fleet Attempt To Catch Snooper At Naval Maneuvers

WITH U. S. 6TH FLEET OFF TURKEY, Sept. 28 (AP)—Pursuit planes of the U. S. 6th Fleet with "shoot" orders went into action this week against an aircraft snooping on fleet maneuvers.

The intruding plane—believed to have been a Russian jet on a photographic mission—escaped to Communist Bulgaria before American carrier planes could intercept it.

Vice Adm. Charles R. Brown, 6th Fleet commander, ordered missile-carrying Navy jets to shoot down the plane Thursday when it flew over American amphibious forces off Turkey for the fourth straight day. Brown signaled his carrier force "a possibly hostile aircraft is approaching your area. If it menaces your formation use sidewinders—air-to-air missiles—to prevent photography."

Although Brown declined to confirm or deny officially that such a message was transmitted, many officers and several civilians saw copies of it. The admiral declined to permit correspondents to transmit the story over Navy communications, but said they could do so by other means.

Commanders of the three carriers in the 90-ship fleet ordered their jets ready for take off while Navy delta wing Skyraiders already in the air sought out the plane.

One carrier pilot remarked later: "I was prepared to fire the first shot in World War III."

The plane, a twin jet swing-wing craft, turned away before reaching the carrier formation and the Skyraiders already aloft failed to make contact.

The plane was first spotted Monday when it flew at high altitude over the American amphibious force massed off Turkey for NATO exercises 30 miles south of Bulgaria. Navy officials said the plane came from the direction of Bessarabia, across the Black Sea and along the Romanian and Bulgarian coasts.

It made similar mid-day appearances Tuesday and Wednesday, flying at higher than 35,000 feet and at a speed of 600 m.p.h. The 6th Fleet tracked it by radar and by its vapor trails but took no action the first three days.

On Thursday, it flashed across the amphibious force at low altitude, again around mid-day, and Brown issued the order to bring it down if it menaced the carrier formation.

The NATO war games, called Exercise Deepwater, ended today. Earlier in the maneuvers, the U. S. carrier Lake Champlain made a sonar contact with an unidentified submarine.

Sermon by Phone Now Available By Calling 3189

"Dial-a-Thought" is here. Now you can phone 3189 and hear a one-minute sermon, a different one each 24 hours. Beginning Dec. 1, you can dial Taylor 6-3189.

Every 24 hours Dr. Leonard Reifel, minister of the Federated Congregational-Presbyterian Church, Sixth and Osage, records a one-minute meditation on a special automatic telephone answering unit which is now installed in the church study.

These one-minute sermons vary from day to day. Sometimes the recording is a bit of Scripture, sometimes a prayer, sometimes a poem or just a brief exposition of a Bible verse, or some helpful inspiring thought.

This is a novel way (method) to spread devotions and inspirations to the public. There are no denominational comments and the program should appeal to all faiths. You can phone the number anytime during the day or night. Ask the telephone operator for 3189; and, later, beginning Dec. 1, dial Taylor 6-3189.

Will Hold District Wool Contest Oct. 5

The District "Make-It-Yourself With Wool" contest will be held at the First Methodist Church Saturday Oct. 5, with the dress revue to be held at 1:45 p.m.

Mrs. Frank Van Dyke is district chairman and there will be winners from 12 counties competing, the winners in the junior and senior divisions to go on to the state contest which this year will be held in Kansas City. Previous years it has been held in Sedalia.

There will also be a sub-deb class for the district contest only.

New Hospital Administrator Is Announced

Former Sedalian Has Professional Study In Specialized Field

Charles M. Edwards, 26, former Sedalian, is returning home to become administrator of the Bothwell Hospital, effective on Tuesday, Oct. 1, Fred M. Lange, president of the hospital board, has announced.

He will succeed James Franks, who is being named office manager and in charge of public relations of the hospital.

The American Hospital Association recommends trained hospital administrators for the modern type institutions and is almost a necessity for hospitals to be given Class 1 ratings nationally. Because of these recommendations, and due to the increased business and expansion of Bothwell Hospital, the hospital board sought a trained administrator.

Edwards is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Edwards, 120 East Broadway. He was born at Charleston, Mo., Dec. 29, 1931, and came to Sedalia with his parents in 1932.

He attended Broadway School and was graduated from Smith-Cotton High School in the spring of 1949. He took undergraduate study at the University of Kansas, received his bachelor of science degree from the Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg, and his master's degree in hospital administration from the Washington University's School of Medicine in St. Louis.

During the Korean conflict he served with the Army's 1st Cavalry Division in Japan.

After his schooling he was on the administrative staff of Burge Hospital in Springfield, Mo., during its building program, as administrative resident.

Edwards comes back home from Lincoln, Neb., where he was assistant administrator of Lincoln General Hospital.

He is a member of the American Hospital Association, Missouri Hospital Association and the Nebraska Hospital Association. He served as public relations counsel of the Nebraska Hospital Association. He is also a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce of America and the Toastmasters International.

Predicts Hoffa Victory

Court Clears Way For Election Of Teamster President Despite Protests

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Sept. 28 (AP)—James R. Hoffa, jubilant over the Washington court decision clearing the way for Teamsters Union elections, tonight predicted a first ballot convention victory next week naming him the new Teamster president.

Hoffa, 44-year-old Midwest union boss accused of corruption by the Senate Rackets Committee and the AFL-CIO, indicated he expected other pending protests against convention delegates to be swept aside, thus guaranteeing his election.

"I am satisfied the delegates now have the right to exercise the voting power they came here for," Hoffa grinningly told reporters.

His election would mean almost certain expulsion of the Teamsters, the nation's largest labor union, from AFL-CIO ranks. The parent federation has called for Hoffa's ouster from the Teamsters in the wake of charges he has misused union funds and powers.

Dave Beck, retiring Teamster president, and himself deeply involved in Senate Rackets Committee charges, called an appeals court decision this afternoon in Washington, which set aside an earlier injunction against Teamster election "a complete vindication."

The appeals decision set aside an injunction issued by U. S. District Court Judge F. Dickinson Letts against electing new Teamster officers. He acted on a rank-and-file members' complaint that delegate choice had been rigged to insure Hoffa's election.

Hoffa hinted the union executive board, at a meeting tonight, would throw out the basis for a challenge, filed by a Hoffa opponent, of some 175 convention delegates representing 111 union locals.

These protests were filed by Thomas J. Haggerty, Chicago, one of the three candidates competing against Hoffa for the Teamsters presidency.

The others are Thomas L. Hickley, New York, and Rep. John Shelley (D-Calif.).

Hoffa said the protest was based on two union constitutional provisions. One requires that delegates' names be certified to the union's international secretary-treasurer, John F. English, prior to 30 days preceding the convention.

Record $2,800 Paid For Landrace Sow

TRIMBLE, Mo., Sept. 28 (AP)—A record $2,800 was paid for a Landrace sow today at an auction on the A. H. Meyers and son farm. Merritt Murphy, secretary of the American Landrace Assn., Noblesville, Ind., said the price was the highest ever paid for a Landrace sow.

Dr. F. Dorton Graves, Joplin, Mo., was the buyer.

McClellan Reads Indictment

Hoffa Is Accused of Using Union Funds for Own Benefit

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28 (AP)—Senate rackets probes today accused Teamster Union boss James R. Hoffa of using tens of thousands of dollars of his union's funds for his personal benefit.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) read off a new indictment of Hoffa as the Rackets Committee wound up a series of hearings at which Hoffa was pictured as using union funds to promote a Florida real estate venture for his own benefit.

Hoffa's attorney acknowledged that he had advised Hoffa "the law would condemn" any use of union funds to promote the project.

McClellan said that Hoffa gave aid and comfort to Teamster officials "who were selling out the interests of Teamsters Union members by setting themselves up in highly improper business activities and by entering into collusive agreements with employers."

McClellan accused Hoffa himself of three counts of collusion with employers and others "for Hoffa's financial gain. He enumerated in all 32 points of what he termed "further improper activities of

James R. Hoffa and his associates."

This was a follow-up to 48 such counts McClellan listed at the close of hearings last month.

Adams was found lying in a ditch just back of the overturned vehicle by Jack Dillon, 1311 East Third, a driver for the Yellow Cab Co. Dillon arrived on the scene seconds after it occurred and saw Adams lying beside the road and the car overturned.

Dillon radioed the Yellow Cab office and notified them there was an accident and the call was then relayed to the Sedalia police department who dispatched a car to the scene.

Adams, because of his painful injuries, was confused about just what occurred, other than the car overturned. Tracks on the pavement indicate he was headed south, and had a short distance back turned off of Grand Avenue onto the Clinton road and his car apparently left the road on the right side, then swerved back across the blacktop pavement and struck the ditch on the left side, overturning on its side.

He apparently was thrown from the automobile as he was found lying on his back in the ditch. He complained of a back injury when picked up by attendants of the Ewing ambulance which took him to the Bothwell Hospital. Dr. Pete Siegel was called to attend him.

The vehicle was homemade. He had purchased a wrecked 56 Ford car and changed the Thunderbird motor from it to the stripped down car as well as other parts of the Ford.

The vehicle was towed to the Chamberlin Service garage by a wrecker from there. It appeared to be badly damaged.

Warrensburg Man Dies In Burning Automobile

HIGGINSVILLE, Mo., Sept. 28 (AP)—Maurice Estes, 25, Warrensburg Negro, burned to death early Saturday in an automobile that struck a culvert and tree and burst into flames after overturning.

Donnie Dwane Rucker, 17, also a Negro from Warrensburg was seriously burned and injured. He was taken to a hospital in Warrensburg from the accident scene on State Highway 13, five miles south of Higginsville.

Just Right

Those who were fortunate enough to see the game at the University of Missouri Saturday afternoon had excellent football weather and a satisfying score, too.

Generally fair over the state Sunday through Monday; warmer west and north Sunday and Sunday night; high Sunday lower 70s east, upper 70s west.

The temperature Saturday was 43 at 7 a.m. and 67 at 1 p.m. The low Friday night was 41.

The temperature one year ago today, high 87, low 76; two years ago, high 93, low 61; and three years ago, high 83, low 62, with 1.90 inch of rain.

Stage at Lake of the Ozarks Saturday missing.

Legislature Will Convene On Monday

Has the Job Of Arranging Ease-up On Building Bonds

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 28 (AP)—The Missouri Legislature convenes in special session Monday with the single job of easing restrictions so the state's building bonds can be sold under present market conditions.

Gov. James T. Blair, who called the special session, said the task should be completed within a week. It said it was imperative that the rest of the $75 million worth of building bonds be marketable so improvements can be expedited at the state's universities, colleges penal institutions and hospitals.

Most legislative leaders agreed with the governor and echoed his belief the job can be done quickly. Blair acted after the state offered $30 million in bonds for sale Sept. 17 but got no bidders. Bond houses said Missouri's bonds would be a good investment except that the law specifies the state can pay no more than 3 percent interest.

Interest is higher than that on other securities just now, they said.

When the House and Senate convene at 1 p. m. Monday, Blair will outline the problem at a joint session. Then, identical bills will be offered in each House.

Blair said the probable solution would be to change the law so the state's bonds can be sold at a little under par value.

After the Legislature's job is finished, the amended law must be reviewed by the Missouri Supreme Court before the bonds will be offered for sale again.

Last February the first issue of bonds, $20 million worth, were easily marketed at 2.385 per cent interest. But the bond market has changed since then.

Optimist Club Honors Carrier Boys Tuesday

The ten outstanding Democrat-Capital newspaper carrier boys for 1957 will be honored at the Optimist Club meeting Tuesday noon at the Bothwell Hotel. The boys will be presented sweaters, medallions, lapel button and certificates.

Special guests will be George H. Trader, president of the Democrat-Capital; Kenneth U. Love, business manager; George H. Scruton, editor; and Russell Petree and Jim Blount of the circulation department.

Boy Dies of Tetanus After Breaking Arm

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 28 (AP)—A 14-year-old St. Louis boy died yesterday from tetanus which followed when he broke his arm two weeks ago.

He was Bobbie Storie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Storie, who injured his arm while playing. He was treated at a hospital and the treatment included an anti-tetanus shot.

Suspected of Kidnaping

CLARKSVILLE, Mo., Sept. 28 (AP)—Two St. Louis County men drowned today in the Mississippi River in the overturn of their boat near the gates of the Clarksville Dam.

Authorities identified them as Charles Grimm, 46, and Edwin J. Uthoff, 35, of Mehlville. Grimm's body was recovered 30 minutes after the accident. Rescue workers were dragging the river for the body of Uthoff.

Identification was made by William Weithaupt, Uthoff's father-in-law, who was fishing in another boat nearby with his 12-year-old grandson.

Second Death Results From Auto Collision

NEOSHO, Mo., Sept. 28 (AP)—David Ryckman of Bloomville, Ohio, died today in Sales Memorial Hospital of injuries suffered in an automobile collision last Saturday. His wife, Gladys, died about two hours after the accident on Highway 60 near Neosho.

HELD IN KIDNAPING INVESTIGATION—George Edward Collins Jr., left, is led into Snobomish County jail at Everett, Wash., by Sheriff Bob Twitchell, who said the Everett youth was booked for investigation of kidnaping in connection with the disappearance for four days of 8-year-old Lee Cray. The boy was found unharmed the day before Collins' arrest. Collins' wife, Katherine, also was jailed in connection with the case. (AP Wirephoto)

Might Attempt School's End

Faubus Says It Would Need New Laws at Special Session

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 28 (AP)—Gov. Orval Faubus said today he might try to close Central High School, rather than continue its integrated classes at federal bayonet point.

"It would be a very pleasant development," he declared.

Faubus said enactment of new laws at a special session of the State Legislature would be a necessary prelude to any such drastic step. Earlier, he had revealed he was considering calling such a session although he had not yet done so.

Asked if a law to close the school would stand up in court, Faubus replied:

"I don't see why it shouldn't."

Faubus emphasized that any such decision is still in the future. He said he would proceed very cautiously in any move to rid the school of federal troops. They were sent in this week by President Eisenhower to enforce the classroom integration of six Negro girls and three boys.

The embattled governor—under fire from Eisenhower during the weekend class recess at the high school—talked to newsmen after conferring with a mothers' group who beseeched him to close the school.

Faubus conferred privately with the mothers. He told newsmen afterwards that he had given the delegation of women no answer. Then he remarked on his own feelings toward the closing of the school.

Faubus said he is leaving town overnight and has no plans to deal with the integration crisis during the weekend.

He had indicated in advance that he would spurn the plea of about 140 members of the Central High School Mothers League. All of the women are parents of white students in the school. Said Faubus:

"If the federal government can use bayonets to force integration, perhaps they could open the schools anyway."

The mothers were led into the executive mansion by Mrs. Margaret Jackson, vice president of their league. She told reporters:

"If this move fails, there are still schools in Georgia and Mississippi, thank God."

Nine Negro students, escorted to and from classes by armed U. S. Army paratroopers, spent three full days in Central High this week, bringing school integration to Arkansas' capital city for the first time in its history.

Proceeds for Local Benefits

CAP, Xi Omega to Hold Annual Pancake Day at Airport Oct. 12

On Oct. 12 hundreds of Sedalians will benefit from an activity sponsored by the Sedalia Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol and Xi Omega Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, for that's the date of the third annual Pancake Day at the Sedalia Memorial Airport. Hungry pancake lovers will be fed by the hundreds, with all proceeds of the day being shared equally by the CAP and Xi Omega.

The CAP, which is already counting their pancakes before they're fried, plan on adding to their already growing building fund while Xi Omega's share will be turned over to the Sedalia Crippled Children's Center, where it will be used for construction purposes. Part-tions will be needed in the new center at Bothwell Hospital and their money is earmarked for that.

Pancake mixing will start while most Sedalians sleep, with frying and eating beginning at 6 a.m. and continuing into the evening. Sausages, syrup, butter and coffee

Over 30 Major Employers

Sedalia's Industrial and Civic Progress As Reviewed by a State Division Writer

(Editor's Note: Sometimes it helps to understand one's own home town by seeing it through someone else's eyes. For that reason, we publish here another in a series of articles on Missouri cities, being written by Leslie G. Kennon of the Missouri Division of Resources and Development. This article is about Sedalia, and it is a story that will be reproduced in many newspapers throughout the state.)

By LESLIE G. KENNON
Missouri Division of Resources and Development

When a Missourian thinks of Sedalia, he's usually talking about the annual Missouri State Fair—or, perhaps, the strategically important nearby Whiteman Air Force Base. Hidden under this cover of fame, however, lies one of the state's truly outstanding stories of civic, industrial and cooperative progress.

Some many years back Sedalia was, by most opinions, on the down-grade. Today, it ranks among Missouri's most far-sighted cities. As a matter of fact, city plans—by qualified engineers in almost every field—are down on paper for the next 20 years!

There are, today, more than 30 major employers in the city and its Industrial Development Commission, in its Chamber of Commerce (one of the oldest in the state), is energetically involved in a high-powered program which promises even better things to come—and soon.

One of the most dominant and active forces for civic progress in Sedalia has been its Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber has been responsible, in fact, for nearly all the industrial progress.

Latest announcement, for example, is the establishment of an industrial park—a tract of more than 30 acres, bordering a U.S. Highway on one side and a railroad spur on another.

Funds for the purchase and development of this industrial park had been provided by the Chamber of Commerce's Post War Civic Development Fund. This revolving fund was started during World War II by a large group of Sedalia businessmen. Plans are that as these sites are sold in the park, proceeds go right back in the revolving fund for further use on land and building projects, many of which are already planned.

New Industry
And a new industry for this industrial park has just been announced. Precision Engineering Co. of Maquoketa, Iowa, is the first to be located in the new area. A new building containing approximately 12,500 square feet of floor space will be built on five acres of the site. Initial employment will be about 35, with a total expected to rise to about 125.

Sedalia's progress story, however, is really tremendous and covers such a variety that it would, indeed, take a small book to cover the entire subject. But, for a "thumb nail" sketch, how's this? Sedalia's population has grown almost 6,000 in the last six and one-half years (based on utilities figures); last year, the city annexed two and one-half square miles, raising the total area to 9.4 square miles.

An estimated 1400 new homes have been built there since 1950. In 1957, the city voted $2,250,000 to purchase the water company and the city council and mayor allocated $350,000 in revenue bonds for the first phase of a huge downtown parking lot program.

The city has hired engineering firms to do complete plans on all phases of development in the city—including sewage, traffic control, land use, population trends, parks, creation of new streets, off street parking, future needs of fire department, civic center, city hall, new parks and recreational areas and a modern zoning ordinance (which is now in effect).

This means that the city has projected sound planning for 20 years. It's now in use, but it is wisely being alternated and adapted to immediate future needs as these plans are put into effect.

Ten years ago, a street lighting modernization went into effect, and voters recently approved a 20 year franchise for gas and lights. The city has now negotiated a new street lighting contract calling for fluorescent lighting in the downtown area. These modern type lights (described as the "most modern available anywhere") will be installed immediately. Other street lighting in the city will be further improved.

Highway Improvement
The State Highway Commission plans to improve U.S. 50, in the city, widening it to 64 feet. At one point the highway now carries in excess of 10,000 vehicles a day!

Speaking of industry, too, Sedalia can tell a good tale. Town and Country Shoes is a good example. It started here in 1943 with two men, $70,000 in mortgaged equipment, and nine employees. Today, the firm does a business in excess of $15,000,000 annually, has over 1500 total employees (550 of them still in Sedalia), has plants at Warrensburg, Odessa and Slater, Missouri, and manufacturing licensees in Australia and South Africa. It sells to 1084 selected retail outlets including ones in Honolulu, Canada, Alaska, Cuba and Bermuda. The firm is just completing its eighth expansion!

J. A. Lamy Manufacturing Co. is another example. It has had several major expansions in past years and is a manufacturer of the original "Levis".

Adco, Inc., started some 50 years ago, making liquid soaps, solvents, waxes, etc. Today, it's the principal U.S. producer of an essential dry cleaning chemical.

Zephyr Manufacturing, starting here in the 1930's, manufactures brooms with a vast nationwide market. There are 85 employees today in a completely air-conditioned plant.

Swift and Company's plant here processes poultry to the tune of 4600 birds per hour, dressed. Its 1957 anticipation is 20,000,000 pounds! It also has hatchery and feed operations.

The MFA Poultry and Egg Division in 1956 underwent a $300,000 addition, has a custom egg-drying operation. And MFA Central Co. is just completing a huge grain elevator.

The REA Central Missouri Co. in 1957 completed a $135,000 building housing all its operations. It uses a unique all-electric heating and cooling system.

Sedalia Fruit Co. is building a 21,600 square foot expansion and Sedalia is home of Warnsburg Pork Sausage, and home of the Parkhurst Manufacturing Co.

The Parkhurst story is one in itself. It makes trailers and the operation grew from a young man and his father and a few employees to 50 today.

But the really amazing story is this: years back, Mr. Parkhurst started renting trailers for nationwide self-use moves. He was having trouble getting West Coast, so he went to get with six others and formed the Nationwide Trailer Rental Service, of which Mr. Parkhurst is now president.

In 1948, Pittsburg Corning Corp. picked the city as site for two new plants without assistance of the community. A year and a half ago, it required a 50,000 square foot addition to its plant.

Menefee Construction, one of the older and larger road builders in Missouri, is headquartered here, as is Howard Construction—a small gravel hauler during World War II, now handling million dollar contracts.

In late 1946, the Sedalia Industrial Development Corporation built a 60,000 square foot building for Home Building Corporation—manufacturers of pre-fabricated houses. Today, the firm handles multi-million dollar housing projects.

In 1953, the Chamber of Commerce sponsored, through community investment, a 30,000 square foot building for the National Engineering and Manufacturing Co.

Thirty months after its erection, the firm required a 21,600 square foot expansion.

But this is by no means the "Sedalia Story". Not yet.

Home of State Fair
The city, of course, houses the 276-acre Missouri State Fair Grounds, with attendance of over a half-million annually. Nearby is Whiteman Air Force Base, an installation representing an investment of more than $240,000,000, and a payroll of $12,000,000, for the area. Sedalia is the home of a nationally-outstanding Crippled Children's Center.

A wealthy former resident left money for a huge recreation area, and the community raised the balance needed and today, the city enjoys, aside from seven other parks (including another swimming pool), the famed Liberty Park. Its concrete, modern stadium seats 4,000. It has a swimming pool, horseshoe pits, badminton and tennis courts, Little League baseball stadium (built by the parents), Convention Hall (for meetings), a steam locomotive and track which the city bought (in its first year, it had more than 20,000 riders—at ten cents each), a stocked lagoon, etc.—just about everything needed in the way of recreation.

Culturally, the Sedalia Symphony Orchestra has been presenting concerts for 23 consecutive years and its Men's Choral Club is famed throughout the State.

In 1955, the city voted $300,000 as its share in a $600,000 addition to Bothwell Hospital. Construction is under way now. The city maintains four covered compression type garbage collection trucks, operated without special assessment, as a city service. It uses a modern land fill for garbage disposal, which has been used as a model by other cities. Its fire department is outstanding and a captain was recently borrowed by another Missouri city for instruction to its own department.

Retail and wholesale stores are booming. Fronts throughout the downtown area are being constantly modernized as well as the interiors and one department store even has an escalator! A wholesale plumbing company recently occupied a 12,000 square foot building and a grocery wholesaler occupied a new 6,000 square foot building.

In recent years, the Chamber of Commerce worked with the Division of Resources and Development in an attempt to establish Whiteman Air Force Base as the site of the U.S. Air Academy. Following this effort, Whiteman was declared a permanent military installation and is now one of the top installations in the efficient and important Strategic Air Command system.

Sedalia is home of Scott Joplin—the granddaddy of ragtime music ("Maple Leaf Rag"), has a national magazine published in the city ("Full Cry"—for conchord and treeshound enthusiasts), is home of the Interstate Studios, a nationally known photo studio which can turn out a picture every one-fifth of a second.

The Missouri Pacific Railroad has repair shops here (about 850 employees) to do major car repair work, modifications for special cars, and maintains salvage and

Dresden Homemakers Meet at Club House

The Dresden Homemakers Club met Sept. 24 at the club house with 14 members and six children present. Mrs. L. May; Mrs. E. Fridricks; Mrs. J. E. Farris and Mrs. D. Raabe joined the club.

Mrs. C. Fichter gave a lesson on Parliamentary Procedure. Mrs. E. Fridricks gave the report on the Boonslick Library. Mrs. G. Farris read Mrs. Zimmermann's letter. Plans for Achievement Day were discussed and $1.38 was collected for the Pennies for Friendship Fund. Several of the members who attended reported on the recent Garden tour.

Mrs. L. F. Raabe installed the following officers for next year: president, Mrs. C. A. DeHaven; vice-president, Mrs. L. May; treasurer, Mrs. E. Edwards; parliamentarian, Mrs. C. E. Ferguson; game leader, Mrs. L. Raabe and reporter Mrs. R. Naples.

The next meeting will be a family night supper at the club house October 22.

junking operations for the entire system.

More Plans
More plans? Sedalia Ice and Cold Storage has spent several hundred thousand dollars in expansions for blast-freezing facilities for poultry and larger storage capacity. Sedalia Savings and Loan is building a $170,000 edifice, Southwest Bell Telephone is completing a dial conversion and a new building at a total cost of over $2,500,000. By December 1, Sedalians can dial long distance direct from individual phones.

Another recent addition is the permanent state headquarters of the Missouri Jaycees, soon to be completed at the municipal airport and which will be dedicated on Nov. 23.

The city has 41 churches and they're on the improvement move, too—a new $250,000 Methodist Church completed, a $150,000 Sunday School building for the Lutheran Church planned, a $60,000 Lutheran educational building completed.

Pettis County has placed in operation a new $17,000 fire station. Educationally, $41,800 was spent in 1955 to add two class rooms and recently, seven more class rooms were added to three elementary schools (the city has three high schools and nine grade schools). Sacred Heart Catholic School spent $250,000 on an expansion program.

It spent $60,000 to rehabilitate the Public Library, has a new Army, headquarters of the entire Missouri-Kansas National Guard (35th Division), has two golf courses, five hotels and 10 motels (five built in 1954), a new planned modern shopping district, two local super markets, one of which has had to double its floor space.

Another pride is a new plush bowling alley which opened in September. At a cost exceeding $350,000, the alley includes 16 lanes, an under-ground ball return system and automatic pin setters.

Transportation-wise, the city is served by Missouri Pacific and Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroads (an 1873 depot was completely replaced within the last two years by the Missouri Pacific and the Katy is modernizing and improving its freight operations), has a 140 acre municipal airport and two U.S. Highways (50 and 65).

Way back in 1861, one George Smith bought the acreage which is now Sedalia—only then it was called Sedville. A neighbor suggested it be "alia" instead of "ville," because of the city's potential growth. And he was right.

Today, Sedalia is on the move. It is daring, challenging, and modern. Sedalia has a "lot of things up its sleeve." Don't be surprised when they announce them. Just remember: "they told us so."

HEAVYWEIGHT?—Pancho Pequeno Chico Del Perito, a full-grown Chihuahua, balances an ordinary postage scale at just 11 ounces. Claimed to be the smallest dog in the world by his owner, Mrs. H. J. Schaeffer, of Woodland Hills, Calif., Pancho has suddenly come into the limelight with an agent to handle his publicity.

Club Clears Over $300 From Carnival

The Officers' Wives' Club sponsored a carnival at the Officers' Club Saturday, Sept. 21, with net proceeds of $369 being earned for the base youth center.

Entertainment for the evening consisted of clowns, human targets, kissing booths, sideshows, penny pitching, souvenir photographs plus nightclub attired cigarette girls selling pop corn, peanuts and souvenirs.

The funhouse entrance was operated by Capt. and Mrs. Thurman Woodall, Capt. and Mrs. Floyd Peede Jr., assisted Biddle Atkins and Marion Bessant at the entrance selling balloons, windmills and tickets to the sideshow. Mrs. Henry Paton Jr. and Mrs. Jack Poush were the cigarette girls.

Another highlight of the carnival was a kissing booth operated by Major and Mrs. Richard Broughton assisted by Arlene Woodall. Selling kisses for charity were Mrs. B. G. Brunner, Mrs. Donald Richards, Mrs. Henry Whittle, Lt. Audrey Zola, Lt. Col. Robert Langdale, Col. William Lewis and Lt. Ronald Stromberg.

A plywood backdrop illustrated and painted by Maor Vaughn Cornish and Capt. Fred McCulley provided the setting for the human target concession operated by Major and Mrs. Wilbur Metz assisted by Capt. and Mrs. Donald Sellon and Mrs. Robert Leuchtmann. Wet sponges were thrown at the command and staff officers of the Air Base Wing and Air Base Group.

Others taking part were Major James Atkins, Capt. Robert Corson, Capt. Charles King Jr. and Sgt. Wheeler, concessions: Mrs. Robert Carter, sideshow assisted by Mrs. William Lewis, Mrs. Francis Stone and Mrs. Ralph Watts. Doing the Charleston were Col.

Lewis and Mrs. Baumgartel. Capt. Leo Dodson, fire-eating event, Capt. and Mrs. George Shavin, portraying an animal training team, an original Turkish dance by Mrs. Stone and a hula by Mrs. John Berlich added to the events of the evening.

Mrs. William Lewis doing a satire of a dance hall hostess, Mrs. Leo Dodson and Col. Ralph Watts with man chasing girl routine and Capt. Shea, the Emmett Kelly of the carnival, provided a grand finale for the activities.

Publicity for the carnival was assigned to Joan Stevens and Betty

Plans Picnic Sunday

The Tri-Community RYO Extension Club will have a reunion and picnic for all members and friends Sunday, Sept. 29 at the Roy Clark farm, north of Dresden. A contributive meal will be served at noon. This club was organized approximately twenty years ago and all old members are welcome.

Ernst assisted by Annette Robb, Shirley Williams and Marie Halvorsen.

Music was furnished by A-2c Dennis Boland.

4-H Round-Up

OWEN FOX

Pettis County Assoc. Agent

Dates Ahead

Oct. 1—County 4-H Junior Leadership Council meeting at the assembly room of courthouse at 8 p.m.

State 4-H Achievement Day

As a result of the State 4-H Achievement Day held at Columbia, Sept. 21, the 4-H members from Pettis County won as follows: Elaine Lowrey from Hughesville Happy Helpers 4-H Club won a red ribbon in dress revue; Shirley Tegtmeyer from Oak Point 4-H won a blue ribbon when presenting her demonstration "How to Iron a Shirt Sitting Down," and William Finley from Striped College 4-H won a blue ribbon with his demonstration "Filling and Using a Grease Gun."

4-H Achievement Days

The 1957 4-H club year is rapidly drawing to a close. By the end of this September more than 36,000 Missouri 4-H club members will be completing their records showing many achievements in project work and activities, all of which means personal growth of the boys and girls.

Ten District 4-H Achievement Days held the last of August and early this month provided an opportunity for boys and girls with outstanding county achievements to compete on an inter-county basis. These district events in addition to providing competition among those who achieve most in their own counties, gives opportunity for boys and girls to meet new friends and are educational for all who attend.

How do club members take part in these District Achievement Days? How many boys and girls are involved?

Well, to answer these questions let's review the various events included in the achievement days. For girls enrolled in clothing projects, there is the dress review. It is divided into two sections; one for girls under 14 years of age and another for those 14 and over. Two hundred sixteen county winners entered this event.

A good-grooming contest is held for both boys and girls. One hundred eight girls and 100 boys participated in this event. They all represented clubs that have carried good grooming as a club activity.

Demonstrations either for individuals or teams is one of the most interesting parts of District Achievement Day. Two hundred ninety-five home economics demonstrations and 206 agricultural demonstrations were present.

Demonstrating recommended practices used is a part of project work and is another way in which 4-H boys and girls gain confidence and poise.

The Share the Fun program has been very popular with clubs throughout the state. It is a part of each club's recreation program and enables members to develop special talents they may possess. One hundred ninety-seven Share the Fun acts were presented by 1159 club members for perhaps the most interesting and entertaining feature of the District Achievement Days.

Eighty-nine boys and girls participated in the Public Speaking events, each presenting a formal speech from eight to 15 minutes in length. Public speaking is a part of the Junior Leadership project.

Winners from each of the ten District Achievement Days took part in the State Achievement Day

Parents Hear Student Panel At Meeting

Smith-Cotton's Parent and Family Life group held its first meeting Tuesday evening at the school, under the leadership of Mrs. Ralph Rohrbach, chairman.

Devotional was given by Mrs. Grant Cox — "The Christian Home Fundamentals."

Judy Warren, accompanied by Pat Schriener, sang two lovely numbers, "With A Song In My Heart," and "The Lilac Tree."

Mr. Blair introduced the youth panel, who gave a very lively and interesting discussion on "Youth's Views on Problems of School, Home and Community." Those taking part were: Marilyn Goldman, moderator, Priscilla Scott, Teddy Welch, Leroy Streit, David Ledbetter, Judy Jiedel, and Barbara Elliott.

The panel pointed out that Smith-Cotton is a good school with a beautiful campus, fine teachers, and a high scholastic rating. They suggested more classes in literature, and auto-mechanics and agriculture need to be added. No student's popularity is hurt by studying and making good grades — however, no "apple polishers" are liked! They approved homework in moderation, discipline according to the deed done, no jeans at school for girls, or too heavy make-up. Teen-agers should have an allowance sufficient to cover his school and social needs — they should have car privileges only if it does not interfere too much with the parents' plans.

To better the community, one boy suggested: Be better young people. Student Council projects helps the community.

The first PTA meeting will be held October 24th.

Brothers Visit Parents at Tipton

Sgt. and Mrs. Chester G. Salmons and daughters, Kathy and Linda, New Cumberland, Pa., left Tuesday morning for their home after spending ten days with relatives in Missouri and Kansas.

They visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Salmons, Raymond and Rolla of Tipton and Mrs. Salmons' relatives in Independence. His brother, W. B. Salmons of Houston, Tex., spent several days last week at Tipton. Sunday they all motored to Topeka, Kan., to visit another brother, N. C. Salmons and family and friends. While there W. B. Salmons transacted business for the construction company he manages.

Concordia Girls Train to Be Nurses

Miss Darlene Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Johnston, and Miss Eunice Ziegelbein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ziegelbein, Concordia, recently entered nursing training at St. Louis. Miss Johnston is training at Missouri Baptist Hospital and Miss Ziegelbein will receive her training at Lutheran Hospital.

Harold W. Barrick

Barrick Heads United Fund Men's Division

Harold W. Barrick, chairman of the men's division of the United Fund, which starts work on the campaign Monday, Sept. 30, is a native Sedalian. He was elected prosecuting attorney in 1952, 1954 and again, without opposition, in 1956.

Barrick has been very active in civic work in the community and in 1955 received the Distinguished Service Award as the outstanding young man of the year which is given each year by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Although he is a Jaycee, young men do not need to belong to that organization to receive the award; it is given strictly on their value to the community.

Among the many organizations he has served as an officer are: Optimist, of which he is past president; Pettis County United Palsy Association, as a board member and a past president; Pettis County Bar Association, past president; member of United Fund board and a former member of the Knife and Fork Club board. He is also chairman of the board of the First Christian Church and a member of the Chamber of Commerce.

It was while he was president of the United Cerebral Palsy Association that the Cerebral Palsy Center was started, from which one of the agencies benefiting is the Cerebral Palsy Association. This is the thing he is most vitally interested in. The father of a healthy little girl, Anita Ruth, he has gratefully given his services in promoting the welfare of other children who must have special help. This, too, is one of the agencies of the United Fund.

Barrick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed W. Barrick and attended Maplewood School. He was graduated from Smith - Cotton High School in 1939.

After his college education was interrupted for four years to serve his country, a year and 20 months of which was in India in the Air Transport Command, Harold came back to take up where he left off, in 1947. He attended Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg, and later the University of Michigan Law School, from which he

Knife and Fork Club Announces Meeting Times

The Sedalia Knife and Fork Club, of which B. E. Heacock is president, has announced its schedule of meetings for the year as follows:

October 31, Dr. Haridas T. Muzundar will speak on "India, Asia and the United States."

November 27, Philip Geary will be the speaker and will take for his subject, "Aviation — Bridge Between Peoples."

January 23, Dr. Rowland Myers will talk on "The Romance of Words."

February 26, Inspector Walter H. Thompson will speak on the topic "Behind the Scenes in Scotland Yard."

March 17, John W. Hughes will tell of "Those Bewildering American Peculiarities."

April 12, "Flying Reporter," to be announced later.

was graduated in 1950. He was admitted to the bar in 1950, came back to Sedalia and began practice on his own.

His wife is also a Pettis County girl, the former Lillian Rages, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Rages, Sr., Hughesville.

James Leo Jackson, Negro, 21, of 708 West Pettis, and Thomas Jones, 22, of 416 West Jefferson, charged with fighting at the Missouri Pacific railroad tracks and North Lamine, both pleaded guilty and were fined $15 each by Judge Willard Morris.

Harold Dee Ray, Warrensburg, charged with careless driving at Main and Missouri, forfeited a $25 cash bond.

The case of William B. Rissler, 711 West Fourth, charged with driving a car while under the influence of intoxicating beverage, was set over to Oct. 4. Rissler was released on a $150 bond signed by Merlin R. Burke.

S-Sgt. Paul Fielding, Whiteman AFB, charged with disturbing the peace of Darlene Busch, 210 East Second, and with being intoxicated, pleaded guilty and was fined $10 for being intoxicated.

Sedalia Man Receives Minor Injuries When Struck by Automobile

Robert P. Kelley, 73, 511 West Second, received minor hurts about 10:19 a.m. Saturday in an accident at Second and Ohio, involving a car driven by C. Van Jones, 503 East Fifth.

Kelley received a cut over the right eye and bruised hip. He was taken to Bothwell Hospital in the Ewing ambulance and was treated by Dr. Karl Gonsler.

According to the police report, Kelley was walking with the green light and headed east across Ohio, while the car, a 1947 Ford coupe, driven by Jones, was headed east, also traveling with the green light and making a right turn on Ohio Avenue.

1928 Class Members To Hold Plan Meeting

The second meeting of members of the class of 1928, Smith-Cotton High School, will be held in the Assembly Room of the courthouse at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, to make plans for the class reunion to be held in June. Raymond Wilder is chairman.

Fifth Annual Series

Nadine Conner to Be First Community Concert Artist

The Sedalia Community Concert Association will participate in the fifth series of an organized-audience plan featuring Nadine Conner in the first concert which will be held Nov. 9. Membership cards will be mailed when all concert dates have been confirmed.

Belonging to the Sedalia Association entitles a member to attend the Community Concerts in Warrensburg and Jefferson City without additional charge. The dates of our neighboring associations, Warrensburg and Jefferson City will appear in addition to the Sedalia concerts, on the reverse side of the membership card.

After more than 30 years in which to iron out the wrinkles, the organized-audience plan now operates according to fixed patterns. During the spring of each year a week-long Community Concerts campaign is carried on with the officers and fund-raisers volunteering their services, done in a selflessness, civic spirit, giving generous expenditure of time.

The $6 membership fee (the standard Community figure, regardless of the number of events it buys) represents a bargain, for it includes membership in a closed club, not just concert tickets as such. No single tickets for Community Concerts are sold to non-members from the public at large, and the only way to get into a Community Concert is to buy a year's membership. The membership card provides generous lapel-appe, for it is valid for admission to Community Concerts in Warrensburg and Jefferson City. Sedalia is able to maintain this reciprocal arrangement with our neighboring Community associations only because their auditors are not sold out.

Whenever the sale of local memberships accounts for the entire capacity of the auditorium, the exchange arrangement is abandoned. It is an inviolable rule of Community Concert service that none of its local associations is entitled to broach the subject of the artists it wants to hear until the financial campaign has been brought to a close.

The organized-audience plan was originated as an idea by Harrison and Harshbarger in 1922. The advantages and potential scope of the plan impressed seven of the independent New York managers and in 1928, together formed an enterprise to organize audiences in the eastern territory. The name they gave it was Community Concerts Corporation.

With Sigmund Spaeth, better known today as the "tune detective," as its first president, Community organized 15 cities and towns in New England and the North Atlantic region in its first season. It was created for the central purpose of establishing additional outlets for the artists managed by the seven offices that clubbed together to underwrite it.

In 1930 Community was sold to the Columbia Broadcasting System with the understanding that Columbia Arts Management, Inc. would become the booking agency for Community Concerts. Soon after it came under Columbia's (CBS) control, Community was renamed Community Concert Service. The word "service" is a key to the understanding of the legal terms in which Community operates. Community does not make a profit on its transactions with the local associations, instead it renders service to the local associations by helping them to organize their membership, raise funds, plan schedules, and make their own individual contracts for artists with the managements that do in fact sell them.

Not a single concert is given anywhere under the direct auspices of Community Concert Service. The concert-giving groups they serve are self-governing, individually organized local association with their own officers, ruling bodies, and bank accounts.

The cost of maintaining Community Concert Service does not come out of the pockets of the local associations. It is paid by Columbia and the participating artists. The corporation contributes by lessening the pressure on the artists by exacting a commission of only 15 per cent on each booking.

Instead of the 20 per cent cut charged on "straight," or non-Community, concert bookings. The artist, relieved of a part of his commission, agrees to play or sing or dance Community dates for a substantially smaller figure than he receives for straight dates. This margin between the artist's established fee and the amount he actually receives is known as the "differential." Out of this differential, come the funds to support the road representatives, the home office in New York, and the regional offices in Chicago and Los Angeles. It also pays for the printing of promotional literature about Community's organized-audience plan. The individual artists pay for their personal promotional literature out of their earnings. Also they pay for their own transportation.

Truly the organized-audience plan has provided music to millions at nominal cost, enabling hundreds of artists of national and international fame to appear in communities which otherwise could not have had the opportunity to hear them.

New Hospital

wife, the former Miss Bettie Belle Dillard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer T. Dillard, 922 West Sixth street. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards have one daughter, Vicki Lynn Edwards, one year old. They will reside at 1613 West 14th.

His predecessor, James Franks, has been with the hospital for the past 12 years, during which the business expansion has been continual growth. The growth of the hospital business and the soon-to-be expansion of the hospital facilities are such that it has become necessary to distribute the operation in a more modern and efficient manner, such as by departments.

Due to the increase in the office work, Franks was named office manager and will devote his entire time to handling of this department, as well as the public relations of the hospital.

Edwards, as administrator will have complete supervision over the hospital and its various departments which are being created.

Lange, in discussing the expansion of the new wing of the hospital, said the plans for the new addition would be ready by Oct. 15, according to the architects. The plans will be reviewed by the State Board of Health, Hospital Division, for final approval.

He said that if the plans are given final approval, calls for bids will be made about 30 days later.

The old City Hospital, used in the past few years as the nurses home, has already been torn down and the site cleared and made ready for the new construction.

Youngsters Given Tour Of Whiteman Air Base

Approximately 250 youngsters from Moberly, Marshall and Chillicothe took advantage of Kids' Day activities to tour Whiteman Air Force Base Saturday. The tour and activities were arranged by members of the Whiteman information services office with the cooperation of all units assigned to the base. Accompanying the youngsters were members of the Kiwanis Clubs at the three cities, who sponsor Kids' Day every year.

The young guests arrived aboard six buses and were welcomed by Col. Richard W. Kline, base commander. A base judo team put on an exhibition, and then the youngsters toured the base, ending with a look at a B-47 Stratojet and a C-19 twin-engine transport plane.

District Court Judge Dismisses Charges Against Reed Grainger

Judge Albert Ridge, of the Federal District Court in Jefferson City, sustained a motion to dismiss charges against F. Reed Grainger for violation of a state statute governing the number of hours that a female employee can work.

The U.S. District Attorney's office filed the motion to dismiss on grounds that the state law does not apply to Grainger in his position as state director for the Federal Crop Insurance Corp.

The decision handed down by Judge Ridge noted that the number of hours and overtime pay for federal employees is regulated by law passed by Congress. Judge Ridge's ruling reads: "Since the United States operating in its own sphere is supreme, section 290.040 of the revised statutes of Missouri is inapplicable to employees of the Federal Crop Insurance Corp."

Grainger was charged on complaint of Mrs. Velma K. Elsenrath, a civil service employee in the government office in Sedalia. Grainger was arraigned before Magistrate Frank T. Armstrong on July 24.

will also be served. A tent will be placed east of the administration building, so Panckake Day will go on come rain or shine.

The Civil Air Patrol is the official civilian auxiliary of the United States Air Force by act of Congress of the United States. The Sedalia Squadron was activated on March 22, 1954. Plans are well underway for the construction of a building measuring 40 by 80 feet to house the CAP at the Sedalia Memorial Airport. This building will be located 100 feet west of the present hangar. The spot is designated on the airport master plan. This building is badly needed in Sedalia, as many of the activities of CAP are curtailed due to lack of facilities.

Beta Sigma Phi is a social and service sorority for young women. One service project is undertaken each year by this group. Last year's proceeds from Panckake Day went toward the furnishings for a room at Bothwell Hospital.

Panckake Day is held at the airport instead of another location so that more Sedalians will visit and become better acquainted with the Memorial Airport.

City Post Office, will be the speaker at Rotary Club Monday noon at Bothwell Hotel. His subject will be "Methods of Handling Mail" and will be illustrated with colored film.

W. A. Harbaugh, program chairman, will introduce the speaker.

Sacred Heart Junior Wins BPW Club Essay Contest

Carolyn Jean Saenz, 15, a junior in Sacred Heart High School, was the winner of the essay contest sponsored by the career advancement committee of the Business and Professional Women's Club, of which Miss Erna Fajen is chairman. The subject on which high school girls were asked to write was: "Why I Want a Business or Professional Career."

Carolyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Saenz, 711 South Kentucky. The family has been in Sedalia two years coming here from Texas. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peterschmidt of the Fairway Furniture Co.

Her essay follows:
Why do I want to be a teacher? For me this profession seems to hold the opportunity to realize womanhood's high ideals and to improve the common good without sacrifice of the finer womanly qualities.

Since the colonial period to our present atomic age, women have risen to new heights of freedom and achievement with results that are admirable. But still it seems to me extremely important while women expect and demand the same rights and privileges as men, that they do not forfeit the respect and protection that is their natural right. Women must never lose their femininity in the race for power and prestige in the business world! Any woman, no matter what her job, can merit the respect that is her due, simply by remembering and upholding womanly standards in her profession. No other woman has as great an opportunity to do this as a teacher.

A good teacher gains the high regard of everyone with whom she comes in contact. That is one reason I have chosen to be part of the teaching profession. The parents of her students are not only grateful to her for making an education for their children possible, but they also admire the patience and zeal of this woman who has dedicated her entire life to the education of America's youth. A teacher's pupils, even though they usually do not admit it, admire their teacher and realize that what she is doing for them now is an important factor in the success they attain as adults. Society as a whole has a high respect for teachers. Every country in the world recognizes the fact that the future of its land depends on how well the teachers do their job.

Considered from the practical point of view, women are naturally fitted for the role of a teacher. Since their earliest girlhoods most women have been teaching—even if their pupils were only dolls! A great majority of teen-age girls are baby sitters for small children and this presents many opportunities for teaching. Even such an insignificant task as reading stories to him helps a child to learn. A woman who has children is constantly teaching someone—from her youngest, learning to walk, to her Cub Scout, learning to tie the fancy knots.

Most mothers who teach find that this job fits their families' schedule better than any other. If her children are in school, her working day will coincide with theirs. On the other hand, if her children are still small, she will be able to spend part of the afternoon with them even if she insists on an early bedtime. A teacher-mother is able to spend her weekends at home with her family; in many other professions this is impossible. A summer vacation with her children is the working mother's dream and this dream can come true for a teacher!

At the financial end of her job a teacher's pay is approximately the same as most other women's office jobs or sales work. It is then that a teacher must have specialized training but in our modern society almost every job requires some particular training or schooling.

Personal satisfaction is one of the most important aspects of any job. If a person receives no satisfaction from his job, he usually will not perform his job as well as the person who enjoys his work. I am sure a teacher gets a large measure of personal satisfaction from her job. In her profession there is a constant increase of

M-Sgt. John Walz Is Stationed in Korea

M-Sgt. John Walz recently was assigned to the 24th Infantry Division in Korea. Sgt. Walz, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Walz, Route 1, Clifton City, is a member of Company M of the division's 21st Regiment. He entered the Army in 1945, completed basic training at Ft. McClellan, Ala., and arrived overseas in July 1957.

knowledge, for a teacher must always keep ahead of her pupils. Most teachers are always developing themselves as they strive to learn still more and at the same time pass this knowledge on to the youth of the world. I'm sure all teachers are proud, and justly so, of the fact that they are helping to keep a "great nation" great. Their way of doing this is not only by teaching the fundamentals such as reading, writing, history, mathematics, sciences, languages, business courses, and literature; but above all by molding the characters of the children under their direction. The little reminders and examples a teacher gives serve her pupils as guides to better citizenship.

Besides realizing the importance of good teachers in American society, I also have personal motives for wishing to join the teaching profession. My natural attraction for school and the desire to work among students at the same time furthering my own education is one; another reason is that I enjoy writing. I would like to combine these two careers for according to my way of thinking they go hand in hand.

Finally, I believe that anyone who can should be willing to give a part of herself for the purpose of bettering our civilization. The teacher who works for more than just a paycheck is certainly giving part of herself. Since her job is one of the few that leaves its impress upon human minds; hence her payment is not only in money, but also in the progress of her pupils.

The role a teacher plays in life and her effective influence on the family, the community, the country, and the whole world can, I believe, be summed up in the words: "A teacher is like a candle—consuming herself while giving light to others."

Make sure of their tomorrows...
DON'T GIVE FIRE A PLACE TO START!

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK October 6-12

DO YOUR PART—This is the official poster for Fire Prevention Week Oct. 6-12. Sponsors of the annual event, the National Fire Protection Association, Boston, Mass., urge you to check your home now for possible fire hazards. It is also wise to prepare your family for fire. Have family fire drills. Plan alternate escape routes from your house. Leave written instructions for baby sitters. Know how to phone the fire department and the location of the nearest fire alarm box.

CRADLE OF WAVES — A giant crack in the floor of the Gulf of Alaska may spawn tidal waves such as those which struck Japan, Hawaii and other Pacific areas in recent months. The U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey pinpointed the crack (heavy black line on Newmap) which begins at Yakutat Bay, below Anchorage, Alaska, and extends 250 to 400 miles across the Gulf. It is 500 to 700 feet below the ocean floor. The fault in the floor is believed to be the birthplace of underwater earthquakes which generate tremendous sea waves (wavy lines on map) which sweep southward over the Pacific Ocean with the speed of jet planes. Dotted lines indicate the Aleutian Deep.

John Chains Have Guests For Dinner

By Mrs. M. R. Gillespie
BLACKWATER — Mr. and Mrs. John Chain had as dinner guests Wednesday Alfred Chain, Stockton, Calif., Mrs. Ruth Webb, Kansas City, Mrs. C. F. Fisher, Lancaster, Kan., Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wilson and Richey of Nelson.
Dr. and Mrs. C. D. Lueckert left Thursday for Washington, D. C. for a visit with their son, Jack Lueckert, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Gillespie were dinner guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Newton of near Sweet Springs. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Kenyon, Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Hooper, Sedalia, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Darling, Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Will Dial, Houstonia.

Mrs. C. D. Vernon went to St. Louis Sunday and attended funeral services Monday for her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harry Hines.

Sgt. and Mrs. Bill Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mercer, Kansas City spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mercer. Additional dinner guests Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mercer and family of Marshall. The Browns were accompanied home by their daughter, Pam, who had spent three weeks with her grandparents.

Mrs. Earl Brockway returned home the first of the week from Augusta, Mich. where she spent several weeks with Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Speers, and Jan.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Grapes and grandson, Larry Grapes, went to Huntsville Sunday and attended a reunion of the Grapes family held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Andrews. There are ten brothers and sisters in the family and all were present. This is the first get-together of the family in ten years.

Meyers Visit Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meyer and Daniel, Lafayette, Ind., have returned home after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Meyer, Concordia.

Donald R. Doyle Assigned to Hawaii

Army Specialist Third Class Donald R. Doyle, whose wife, Dianne, lives in Blackwater, recently was assigned to the U. S. Army Base Command at Fort Shafter, Hawaii.

Specialist Doyle entered the Army in October, 1956, and completed basic training at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.

The 20-year-old soldier was graduated from Boonville High School in 1955. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion M. Doyle, live on Route 1, Boonville.

Top 3 Wives Add Members

Whiteman's NCO wives club is growing at a rapid pace, according to Mrs. Anita Hibbs, president. Thirteen members were added to the roster last week at the regular monthly social and luncheon held at the NCO club.

Approximately 50 members and guests attended the social, which honored members having birthdays in September. Honored with a birthday cake and gifts were Mesdames Carrie Rhodes, Grace Sine and Joyce Tardif.

Summer Menu Given In Answer to Roll

The Homebuilders Extension Club of Windsor met at Farrington Park for its September meeting. Mrs. Bill Yount called the meeting to order with all repeating the club collect in unison.

Roll call was answered with "Our Favorite Hot Weather Super." The nominating committee reported on the new officers. Mrs. Robert Hand and Mrs. Otis Ellis were appointed to arrange the table for achievement day. Mrs. George Ray read Katherine Zimmerman's letter entitled, "The Business of Homemaking." An interesting lesson on public affairs was given by Mrs. Floyd Harbit.

The October meeting will be a tour by the club members.

Know-How, Nerve Foil C-119 Crash

Iron nerve and maintenance know-how prevented a C-119 from crash landing while on a routine test flight at Whiteman Air Force Base last week.

During the test flight of the C-119, following completion of the 31st periodic inspection, an emergency occurred. The crew consisted of base flight personnel—Capt. Frank Hinkle, pilot; 1st Lt. Ronald Stromberg, co-pilot; S-Sgt. Ronald Sandidge, crew chief-engineer; and S-Sgt. Carol Thomas, assistant crew chief.

After breaking the ground on takeoff, the instrument panel indicated that all three landing gears were coming up. Immediately after the main gears were in the wheel wells, Sgt. Sandidge noticed an unsafe position between lock and unlock.

After all emergency procedures to retract the nose gear had been tried, while the aircraft had gained an altitude of 4000 feet, Sgt. Sandidge found it necessary to climb down in the wheel well, with Capt. Hinkle and Sgt. Thomas holding onto his belt to keep him from falling.

WSCS Zone Meeting Was Held Recently

The WSCS of the Clinton Zone held its Missionary Educational Seminar Friday, Sept. 20, at the Montrose Methodist Church with 18 societies represented.

Mrs. C. D. Williams presided at the meeting with the theme being, "Till Christ Shall Dwell in Every Heart." The welcome was given by Mrs. Marvin Johnson, president of the Montrose WSCS. Mrs. Frank Waugh, zone chairman, gave the response. Interesting skits and book reviews of the study books for the year were given. Each society president gave a short talk telling of their work.

Those from Windsor attending were: Mrs. Ellis Huston, Mrs. J. R. Watt, Mrs. L. T. Hoback, Mrs. Walter Dunn, Mrs. Preston Hampton, Mrs. C. E. Oechsli, Mrs. Maude Hensley, Mrs. Sam Marti, Mrs. B. M. Campbell Sr. and Mrs. Ernest Martin.

Sandidge then placed a chain around the lower part of the nose strut, running it back to the bulkhead and tying it to the floor. He also inserted a nose safety gear ground pin. This was to insure a safe landing condition with the nose gear down.

Broadway PTA Holds Ice Cream Social

Last Friday evening the Broadway PTA sponsored ice-cream social cleared a little over $400. This year's social was handled by Mrs. W. L. Bates, second vice-president, and a number of committees appointed from the executive board and PTA members.
